REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

At the called meeting of the Republican State Central Committee of Nevada, held at Virginia, March 14, 1882, it was resolved that a State Convention should be held at RENO, WASHOE COUNTY, September 4th, 1882.

And that the apportionment of delegates from the several counties of the State to said Convention should be as follows:

Churchill..... 1 Douglas..... 4
Esmeralda..... 7 Elko..... 4
Eureka..... 12 Humboldt..... 4
Lander..... 6 Lyon..... 4
Lincoln..... 4 Nye..... 4
Ormsby..... 7 Storey..... 27
Washoe..... 8 White Pine..... 4
Total..... 97

The following resolutions were also adopted:

Resolved, That the delegates to the State Convention be elected at Primaries, and that the various County Central Committees be requested to call said Primaries on Saturday, August 19th, 1882.

Resolved, That if a vacancy should occur in any delegation after the Primaries are held, said vacancy shall be filled by the remaining delegates.

Resolved, That any county may elect delegates to the State Convention at a County Convention, the members of which shall have been elected at regular Primaries, held on or before the said 19th of August, 1882.

The following test was adopted and recommended for use at the Primaries: "Are you a Republican, and will you support the nominees of the Republican State Convention?"

BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

Washoe County, Nevada, May 1st, 1882.
Frederick Joseph Frey, Chairman; D. H. Lodge, B. H. Kinsley, B. A. Rankin, District Attorney; R. S. Osburn, Clerk.

It appearing to the Board that the order heretofore published in the Platsdealer, on the 18th day of February, concerning the apportionment of the tax for the construction of a sidewalk along the north side of block Q, in the town of Reno, contained a misdescription of the block, the same being described as block O. It is ordered that the said order be published in the DAILY NEVADA STATE JOURNAL, for two consecutive weeks, to-wit:

ORDER—It appearing to the Board of County Commissioners that heretofore, to-wit on the 3d day of October, 1881, a petition of the majority of the frontage property owners along the north side of block Q, in the town of Reno, praying an order of this Board for the construction of a plank sidewalk along said block, and that on the 7th day of November, 1881, after due consideration and notice thereof, published in the Platsdealer, and a newspaper published in said town of Reno, for the period of two consecutive weeks, and it further appearing that said sidewalk was constructed as per the order of this Board by all the frontage property along said block, except seventy-five feet, to-wit fifty feet along the front of lots 16 and 17, owned by J. B. Marshall, and twenty-five feet along the front of lot 15, belonging to the Western Union Telegraph Company, in said block, and the Board therefore, advised for bids for the construction of said sidewalk, and it appearing that the bid of Joseph Odetti, in the sum of seventy-five dollars, was the lowest and best bid, and the same being accepted, and it further appearing that said sidewalk has been constructed by said Joseph Odetti along the front of lots 14, 16 and 17, and that the cost thereof is $75.

Now therefore, it is ordered that the cost of the construction of said sidewalk be apportioned among the frontage owners of said lots as follows: To the said J. B. Marshall, owning lots 16 and 17, 50 feet, $40, to the said Western Union Telegraph Company, owning lot 14, 25 feet, $25.

JUDGE WHITMAN FOR GOVERNOR.

The Carson Index suggests Judge Whitman as the Republican nominee for Governor. Whitman is a gentleman whom the people ought to delight to honor. The index says of him:

He is one of the very few of those lawyers and politicians of twenty years ago who gave to Nevada a reputation second to no other State for ability, and who now remain among us. There is no controlling reason why Judge Whitman should not be put in the line of political promotion. He is a man of mature years and wide experience. His record as one of the Judges of our Supreme Court is not contaminated by any undue leanings toward corporations. He is a man who has that self-respect which in any high office would ensure something more than mere subservience to the exactions of the money power. He would think more of making an honorable record than all other things put together if he were once entrusted with the Chief Magistracy of this State. He has about him that cultivated and natural ability that would make him an ornament to this State as a Senator at Washington. The times are auspicious and the political situation is such that Judge Whitman ought to be nominated and elected Governor on the Republican ticket, and succeed Senator Fair in the Senate March 4, 1897.

Improvements All Round.

The San Francisco Chronicle reports "that now that the immigration of the Chinese has been restricted and the people are ceasing to employ them, the social, industrial and political condition of affairs in California is rapidly improving. Free from a silly spirit of reckless speculation, the residents of San Francisco have finally returned to their senses, and are exhibiting a commendable degree of industry, patience and enterprise in the legitimate channels of business offered by our commercial, agricultural and manufacturing resources, and are beginning to reap a rich reward. A desirable class of white immigrants is now coming to California from Europe and the East, the uncultivated yet fertile lands in every county in the State are being settled upon and cultivated, a great stimulus has been experienced in nearly all branches of business, our manufactures are increasing, our trade is extending, our capitalists freely investing their surplus funds, the people are active and contented, and San Francisco has shown that she is deservedly proud of her reputation as the metropolis of the Golden State."

The Derby.

Public interest in the Derby is not so great as usual in London, owing possibly to the fact of so many favorites having gone wrong. The American horses stand in a somewhat bad odor in consequence of so many scratchings. If Gerald should win, victory would not be received with the same enthusiasm which greeted Iroquois' victory. Gerald is backed heavily at nine to one. Keene is unfortunate with his candidates, Golden Gate, Romeo and General Scott, all being beaten in the trials and none being likely to run.

A Denial.

Sarah Brown, daughter of old John Brown, whose "soul goes marching on," has a letter in the San Jose Mercury dated at Saratoga, Santa Clara county, May 11th, in which she denies that her mother is in straitened circumstances. Miss Brown declares, on the contrary, that her mother, having received $2,300 from her California friends and $75 from the East, was enabled to pay her debts, and is now living quite comfortably.

A Nomination Declined.

In an interview Monday, Hon. Thos. M. Marshall stated that he had decided to decline the Pennsylvania Republican nomination for Congressman-at-Large, but refused to say whether he would or would not accept an independent nomination if tendered him. His declination of the regular nomination is definite and conclusive. His letter is not yet prepared.

The Eureka Sentinel parades as a fact that Judge Sawyer, of this Circuit, made a speech favoring the Democracy at a ward meeting in San Francisco the other night. It exposes the matter by naming him as Judge E. D. Sawyer. The name of the U. S. Circuit Judge is Lorenzo, so the Sentinel had better apologize.

Senator and President pro tem. of the Senate, W. R. King, of Lyon county, will be a candidate before the Republican Convention for Governor.

Parnell wishes to resign his seat in Parliament, and go on the Continent to reside for some time.

"God save the Queen."

H. S. CROCKER & CO.

The house of H. S. Crocker & Co. is well and favorably known throughout the Pacific Coast as one of the most extensive in its line in the United States. Their splendid establishment on Bush street, occupied by them since September, 1880, is one of the finest business buildings in San Francisco, and with the exception of a part of one floor, is entirely occupied by the different departments of their immense business. The building has a frontage on Bush street of 68 feet, a depth of 135 feet and a height of five stories and basement. The latter is always kept filled with the heavier goods of their stock, and is the place where all goods are received and shipped. At the rear is a fine engine of 100-horse power for the driving of the machinery and elevators.

On the first floor are located the sales-room and offices, and it is safe to say that no more roomy, convenient and elegantly arranged establishment can be found in any of the great Eastern cities. The modeling of this floor was under the personal management and direction of Mr. John D. Yost, the junior partner of the firm. In this elegant room are conveniently arranged and displayed a sample of all goods kept in stock, and also in lines of beautiful and costly show-cases a large and varied stock of photographic albums, Russia leather goods, fancy articles, fine papers and card stock, gold pens and pencils, draughtsmen's materials, etc. The second floor is occupied by the

PRINTING DEPARTMENT.

Under the management of Mr. S. H. Wade. Here are arranged in two straight lines on the right, twenty presses, and on the left scores of cases of type at which fifty compositors are at work. This is the busiest room in the building and by far the largest and handsomest printing office on the Pacific Coast, while the work turned out is always first class. On the third floor is the office of the Stationer and the Railroad Gazetteer, the large jewelry manufactory of Geo. C. Shreve & Co., and the editorial and press rooms of the Stock Exchange newspaper. The fourth floor is used by the firm as a storeroom, and is filled with the lighter class of goods composing their stock. The fifth floor is occupied by a complete binding and blank book manufactory, with the latest and most

IMPROVED MACHINERY,

Among which are five ruling machines of the most approved pattern, and which are kept constantly busy. In the bindery are employed about fifty-five people. Mr. A. J. Daygett is the Superintendent, a practical and experienced workman. Here is also located the lithographing department, presided over by Mr. M. Gumpel, who, as an artist and skilled draughtsman and engraver, ranks among the best of his profession. This department has three new presses of the latest and most approved pattern, a full corps of skillful workmen, and the work turned out will bear comparison with the best lithographing work done in the United States. The entire working force in the several departments of the establishment numbers over two hundred. The origin of this great house dates back thirty years, to 1852, when Mr. H. S. Crocker commenced a small printing business in Sacramento, which increased from year to year until a store was opened in connection, which also flourished and grew into the

LARGE ESTABLISHMENT

As we find it to-day at 208 and 210 J street. In October, 1871, the San Francisco house was founded by Mr. Yost, the junior partner, and business quarters established at 401 and 403 Sansome street, where the firm remained until September, 1880, when they moved into the splendid house now occupied by them. The present members of the firm are Mr. H. S. Crocker, the founder and head of the house and a gentleman who ranks high among the honorable and enterprising business men of San Francisco; Mr. John D. Yost, the junior partner, ever alert, active and wide-awake, is the business man of the firm; Mr. Geo. M. Mott is a partner in the Sacramento house and conducts it with energy and ability. The trade of the house extends over the entire Pacific Coast—to Mexico, Central and South America, China, Japan and Australia, and is constantly increasing. One of the members of the firm spends a part of the Summer and Fall of every year in New York and among the great paper mills of Holyoke and other paper manufacturing centers, purchasing goods. Their stock is always complete and extensive, while everything new and novel in their line is added at the earliest possible time. With a long and enviable record for fair and honorable dealing; with the largest stock and most complete establishment west of Chicago this house may well ask for a fair share of the trade of the Pacific Coast.

The Northern Pacific is going to build at Portland, Oregon, one of the largest and finest depots in the world. It is to be built of stone, granite and iron, and will cover twelve full blocks of ground. It will cost $1,500,000.

The National Bank Bill.

The bill to enable National Banking Associations to extend their corporate existence, as it passed the House, Saturday, provides that any National Bank Association may, at any time within two years next previous to the date of the expiration of its corporate existence under the present law, with the approval of the Comptroller of the currency, extend its period of succession by amending its articles of association for a term of not more than twenty years from the expiration of the period of succession named in said articles of association, and shall continue such association for such extended period, unless sooner dissolved by act of the shareholders owning two-thirds of its stock, or unless its franchise has been forfeited by some action of law. Such amendment of articles of association must be authorized by consent, in writing, of the shareholders owning not less than two-thirds of the capital stock.

The Mark Hopkins' Estate.

The referee to examine the final account of Mark Hopkins' estate reports the account correct with the exception of $39,000 paid S. W. Sanderson, $500 to W. H. L. Barnes for legal services, $11,700 to E. W. Hopkins for services as agent, $37,372 expended for a vault for deceased, and $320,000 in commissions claimed by administrator. The appraised value of the estate is $20,000,000 and over $18,000,000 has been divided among the heirs.

One Dollar Damages Awarded for a Severe Thrashing.

Tuesday morning the jury in the $5,000 damage case of Williams vs. Smith, on trial at Nevada City, agreed upon a verdict for Williams, assessing the damages at $1. The nature of the verdict became known to plaintiff before it was given into the Court, and he refused to pay the jury fees. The Judge therefore stuck the verdict into his pocket without having it read and discharged the jury.

A Tree of Iron.

(Syracuse Standard.)

The Iron Palmetto is the greatest work of art in the State House yard. This is a casting wholly of iron, commemorating the death of many of Carolina's slain, whose names are found in raised letters on two brass tablets at the base. The success of the casting consisting of its perfect imitation of the living palmetto, the favorite tree of South Carolina. We have heard of this statue in other places, but had never been able to believe the stories of the flexible leaves bending in the breeze, supposing the phenomena an optical illusion, but such really is the case. The long, thin leaves of iron, life-like even to the hair-like fibers of the twigs and branches, wave tremulously in every zephyr, and the whole tree, painted artistically, has so close a resemblance to the real tree as to deceive the acutest observer at the distance of five rods.

These sad mementoes of a sadder past causes all the glories of war and the petty triumphs of victorious arms to sink into pitiable insignificance, and only this pathetic tribute to the memory of fallen believers of the Lost Cause, whose faith was sealed in their own blood, remains to tell of the woe and heart-breaking sorrow which has fallen like a pall of midnight darkness over all the South.

A Robber Disguised as an Alligator.

(American Republican.)

A few nights ago, a Dooley county, Ga., farmer, whose place is on the river was walking around near his stock yard, when he heard a squealing among his hogs. He looked over the fence to learn the cause, when he found a large alligator had a dead hog, which it had killed, and was trying to make its way to the river. He ran to the house for his gun, and called for several of his hands to go with him to kill the alligator. On arriving at the lot the hogs had disappeared and so had the water monster. They followed to the river bank, and, instead of alligator tracks, discovered those of two persons, who had the skin of an alligator and had used it to accomplish the purpose of stealing hogs and making the owner, if he should discover them, believe it was an alligator. The rowing of a boat down the river could be distinctly heard, but there was nothing to pursue in, so the matter was dropped until a better opportunity was offered for catching up with the perpetrators.

A retired army officer receives a good salary, fills a lucrative office and is at the command of the War Department. He cannot leave the country without permission, and is liable to be called to active duty. Section 20 of Article IV, Constitution of California, prohibits any person holding a lucrative office under the United States from filling any civil office of profit under this State. General Stoneman is a retired Major-General and receives as such $3,500 per year. He is a Railroad Commissioner under this State, and it is an office of profit ($1,000 a year). He is a candidate for Governor also. He is just as eligible for Governor as he was for Railroad Commissioner, and clearly he is eligible for neither.—Sacramento Record-Union.

Just as some of the aspirants for nomination in the Republican State Convention were feeling jubilant over their chances, B. M. Daggett informs a Carson Appeal reporter that he doesn't want the Hawaiian mission. He prefers to take his chances here. That is too too.—Austin Reville.

CHARLES STEWART PARNELL—THE IRISH PATRIOT.

Charles Stewart Parnell was born in the year 1846, at Avondale, in the county of Wicklow, Ireland, the son of a gentleman who was at one time high sheriff for the County Meath. His mother was the daughter of an admiral in the United States navy, and this connection gives additional interest to the story of the young statesman's life. Mr. Parnell's grandfather was the last Chancellor of the Exchequer of the Irish Parliament, and bitterly opposed the identification of Irish with British interests in the Parliament of the United Kingdom. The subject of our sketch was educated at Magdalene College, Cambridge, England, from whence he was graduated. In 1875 he was elected member of Parliament for Meath, and represented that constituency until the general election of 1880, when he returned for three constituencies, including the one he had represented so long. He preferred to sit for the city of Cork. He belonged at the beginning of his parliamentary career to the Irish Home Rule party, in which he soon rose to eminence, although a Protestant and personally not popular with the leading members. This fact probably accounts for his failure, in 1879, to reconstruct the party by means of a national convention; but in October, of the same year, he founded and was made first President of the National Irish Land League. The harvests of 1877 and 1878 were very bad and that of 1879 a total failure. Irish discontent rose accordingly, and Mr. Parnell and his fellow Land Leaguers' opportunity of successful agitation. Their objects were in brief: 1. A reduction of rents and refusal to pay if such reduction were refused. 2. A final and entire change in the land laws, peasant proprietorship to be substituted for that of landlords. Simultaneously with an agitation which in 1880 made Mr. Parnell the supreme Irishman and the virtual ruler of his country, extraordinary means of relief were adopted for the relief of Irish distress, in which both England and the United States took a conspicuous part. In January, 1880, Mr. Parnell visited the United States and created a feeling which crystallized itself in the formation of Land League associations that have proved the main financial support of the home organization. Two years ago this month he was chosen President of the Home Rule party in the place of Mr. Shaw. Towards the close of 1880 information of seditious conspiracy was applied for by the Crown against Mr. Parnell and certain of his association, which resulted in a trial brought to an indeterminate issue, but their virtual acquittal by the non-agreement of the jury. When he took his seat for Cork, the young statesman was made leader of the Irish party in the House of Commons. His tactics of obstruction produced a strong feeling against him in England, and under the Coercion act, which was thought necessary by Mr. Gladstone's government in order to the restoration of the power of the crown in Ireland, he was, in October, 1881, arrested as a "suspect," and imprisoned in Kilmainham Jail. He was released only the other day as the result of a letter to the Prime Minister, in which he is understood to have offered his co-operation with the regular authorities in the restoration of order, and the devising of measures intended to obviate the causes of political trouble in his native land.

There will be no lack of candidates from Eureka this Summer for places on the Democratic State ticket. With Cassidy for Congress, Campbell for Controller, Saddle for State Treasurer, and one or two dark horses, it ought to make a lively fight for the Eureka delegation. No man will stand a ghost of a show who does not control his own county, and as not more than one man will be selected from Eureka, it may lead to a lively family fight here.—Eureka Leader.

The fifth annual commencement of Mt. St. Mary's Academy will be held on Wednesday, June 28th. Admission tickets will be $1, which will also entitle the holder to a chance in a handsome silver ewer, to be raffled immediately after the closing exercises.

The Chronicle says Governor Kinkead has accepted the invitation of Marshal Armstrong to join Phil. Kearney Post, Grand Army of the Republic, in Memorial Day observances in Virginia City on the 30th inst. On account of other engagements, the Governor's staff will not be able to be present.

The Carson Index says: "We are informed by State Printer, Maddrell, that Mr. I. D. Cross, formerly well known in Dayton and Reno, and now at Bellevue, Idaho, continues very ill from his recent attack of rheumatism of the heart. He is too feeble to reach Kelton, although it is highly necessary that he should leave the Wood River country for the improvement of his health. He is consequently in a very critical situation. We hope to hear very soon that he is weathering the storm and on the way to recovery."

Flanagan Sick.

A telegram was received here yesterday from Sparks, a small station on the Southern Pacific Railroad, that Capt. J. M. Flanagan was dangerously ill, and requesting pecuniary aid from Reno Lodge, No. 19, I. O. O. F., of which Flanagan is a member.

Court Circular.

Johnson Sides, the Premier of the present Pinte Administration, supplies the Virginia Chronicle with the information that His Majesty, Captain Sam will shortly leave the Comstock for Walker lake, where the royal family will spend the Summer months in hunting and fishing for the market. Prices, Johnson says, will continue to be absurdly low.

In Favor of It.

Some of our Washoe county farmers are very anxious to hear of the final passage of Farley's desert land bill. The two years' extension of time will enable them to complete work entered into in good faith, and to reclaim land which is of no account unless supplied with water. Under the original bill they nearly bankrupted themselves, and unless the extension of time is granted, will have no opportunity of recovering money expended and labor furnished.

LEAGUE OF DELIVERANCE.

An Appeal to the People of Nevada From the Executive Committee.

In pursuance of the plan of action adopted by the representatives of the labor organizations of the Pacific Coast, assembled at San Francisco on April 24 last, we desire to call your attention to the necessity of the people of Nevada performing their portion of this important work, made necessary by the insidious cancer of Mongolian miscreants that is preying upon the vitals to our social and political liberties, and if permitted to continue, will sap the foundation of our American institutions. We therefore call upon every liberty-loving and patriotic citizen who values the peerless boon of American citizenship, the prosperity of coming generations and the happiness and well being of the toiling millions of the present, above the sordid motive of self-aggrandizement and morbid sentimentalism, to assist, now, while it is in their power to eradicate from our midst the last relic of this Mongolian social evil, and win for Nevada the proud distinction of being foremost in this grand work of regeneration. This is an easy task for a determined and upright people, and will not necessitate a resort to force or any unlawful measures. And in view of this indubitable fact, we have stricken from the plan of action for the State of Nevada the clause embracing any contemplation of force. Trusting that the strongest instincts of the human race—self-protection and the love and well-being of offspring—will prompt each one to make use of any legitimate means clearly within his, or her, reach to accomplish the desired end, and preserve equal rights and liberties of men—not of slaves, not of coolies, the freedom of eating, drinking, opium-smoking, working automations is not the freedom that our system of government contemplates for its citizens. They have higher rights and broader liberties, and we shall always claim the privilege of enjoying them; and in the exercise of such privileges we have pledged ourselves to discriminate in our business relations against the Chinese and those who give aid or employment to them in any form, in order that they may not be countenanced in our midst. To this end we call upon the ladies in our community to assist us in this work by their influence and effort, to neither hire, trade with, nor encourage in any manner whatever the Chinese or their emissaries, believing that with such assistance the work before us is already an accomplished fact, and the Executive Committee rely solely upon this system of Boycotting to rid us of the Chinese curse. We therefore appeal to the people of Nevada to join with us in our undertaking. (Signed)

Knights of Pythias.

The accession of new members to the Order of Knights of Pythias, in Nevada, during the past year has been unprecedented. The average membership of the four lodges in Storey county exceeds 125. In Carson there are two lodges, and during the last two months they have received nearly forty applications. The peculiarly attractive feature of this order is the insurance of $3,000 which goes to the family of a deceased member. There is at present one lodge in Reno, and there is some talk of instituting another.

AN INSINUATING PEDDLER.

He Turns Up in Eureka With Another Man's Wife.

The Winnemucca Silver State says: "Some days ago a stranger appeared in town peddling a patent extension duster which he said was the greatest labor-saving invention of the age. He expatiated upon the merits of the duster at every house until he made a sale or was shown the door, telling the women he had been presented with a gold medal by the Ladies' Mutual Aid Society, as a benefactor of their sex, for his valuable invention. His oily tongue had such fascination for a married woman of this place, whose husband was away from home, that she sold her household effects for what she could get for them, and left on the emigrant train with the duster peddler. Her husband, who is said to be on the Idaho road, will probably be informed by friends of his good or bad fortune."
The Eureka Leader has this about it: "The parties arrived in Eureka Friday night under the name of Edward Herbert and wife. The injured husband, Mr. Wiley, determined on recovering his child from his faithless wife, arrived in town Saturday, and applying to the Sheriff, was soon informed in regard to the runaway pair. Sunday, in company with an officer, he made a call on his runaway spouse, and had the door locked in his face. The little child, seeing his father, ran to the window, when the indignant man, raising the sash, seized the boy and carried him off, notwithstanding the expostulation of the woman. Mr. Wiley left this morning for home.
